1. The Kladsko (Glatz) problem is becoming a serious issue.

25X1 2. Dr. Ivo Ducháček, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the Parliament, is forcing the government into a policy declaration to be announced at the next meeting of the Foreign Affairs Committee on 26 November 1946. It will take up Czechoslovak border problems with Germany and Poland. A spokesman of the Foreign Ministry is to report on the policy. Acting Foreign Minister Fierlinger is frantic to gain time, for the government is unprepared to declare its policy in face of the dilemma of the Russian declaration on the definiteness of the Polish border on one hand and Nationalist pressures for Kladsko on the incorporation on the other hand.

4.

5. Although there is no real hope among most of the proponents, as much political hay as possible is being made for internal advantage.
